

Beverly Babb Weds R. L. Burpe

A Sunday afternoon wedding in First Baptist Church of Torrance Oct. 18 united Miss Beverly Babb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Babb, 20924 La-Salle Ave., and Ronald L. Burpo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Burpo, 1564 W. 210 St. Rev. Morgan Gates officiated at the service.

Pat Ouwendijk was the organist and Bonnie Medred, soloist, their musical numbers, "If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "O Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in floor length white silk organza, styled with wasp waist and with satin stitch, Italian embroidery across the neckline and down to the waist. Her white tulle veil was caught to a baby doll crown of seed pearls with a tear drop in center front. Her bridal bouquet was orchid centered.

Bride's Attendants
Donna Babb, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore turquoise silk organza over taffeta, with chiffon gathered at the bodice. Matching her gown was her sweetheart hat with seed pearl trim, and her fan of carnations and streamers. Bridesmaids were Bonnie Lynn Burpo, sister of the groom, and Tandra Catron. Their dresses, hats and bouquets were styled as that of the matron but in shrimp color.

Little Patricia Ann Burpo, sister of the groom, wore a floor length gown with apron of white Chantilly lace over white tulle. Vernon Charles Burpo was ring bearer.

Robert Jacobsen served the groom as best man and ushers were George Taylor, Eddie Clyde Babb, Bill Babcock, and Roger Sinclair.

Reception

A reception was held at Fellowship Hall on Pacific Coast hwy., after which the newlyweds left on a honeymoon. Upon their return they will live at 702 Redondo Beach Blvd., Gardena.

Coming for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William K. Chambers and twins of Montana; Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Babb of San Diego; and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hudak of Rosemead.

Mothers Club Plans Election

Mrs. Willys Blount, 1444 El Prado, was hostess to the Job's Daughters Mothers Club Oct. 14. Mrs. Paul Bischoff assisted.

The group discussed the Oct. 27 Chamber of Commerce breakfast which they are to serve. Help was asked by chairman Mrs. George Crabtree.

Since election of officers is scheduled for the group in November, the president appointed Mmes. Harold Woodman, John Pollard, and Willys Blount as the nominating committee.

December Banquet

The December meeting will feature a banquet, at which time the new officers will be installed. To prepare for the annual event, Mrs. H. E. Holquist, chairman, and committee members, Mmes. George Fowell and P.M. Crossman will choose a restaurant and extend invitations to all past honored Queen's Mothers and all past Mothers Club presidents.

Mrs. Iva Basile, corresponding secretary, who is moving from Torrance, was given a farewell appreciation gift.

Sorority to Hold Theater Party at Manhattan Beach

A private theater party to be held at the Chapel Theater, Manhattan Beach, will entertain members and guests of Xi Zeta Lambda, Beta Sigma Phi, Oct. 28. The group will see a production of "Matchmaker."

Mrs. Fran Nichols was hostess at the Oct. 21 copper party. The Oct. 14 party was in the home of Mrs. Charles Whitesell, 18011 Elgar St. with president, Mrs. John Wise, presiding.

On the program were Mrs. Eric Swanson with a talk on "Taste and Smell," and Mrs. Raymond Millhouse, who spoke on "The Sense of Hearing." Each used explanatory charts and Mrs. Swanson also served tasty hors d'oeuvres to illustrate her talk.

Girls Organize Torrets Club

Torrance High school freshman girls were entertained Oct. 8 at a Freshman Tea held at the YWCA and sponsored by its Y-Teen group and the Phi Deltas, senior group of THS Flora Watson explained the group's activities and invited participation. Refreshments were served.

Freshmen girls met again Oct. 15 and formed a club to be known as the Junior Torrets. Elected to serve as first officers were: Karen Henderson, president; Nora Thornberry, vice president; Carl Morse, secretary; Sharol Knight, treasurer; Marty Wood, chaplain; Linda Larson, sergeant at arms; Gayle Schenk, reporter and historian.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD L. BURPO

—Portrait by Crotty

Marina Juniors to Area Conference

Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, junior membership, were represented at the Area C conference at the Green Hotel, Pasadena, Oct. 24. "Harmony in F" was the theme for the all day conference which began with registration and coffee at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Don Taylor, vice president at large of area C welcomed the membership. Mrs. Lyle Schermitzler, state first vice president introduced state chairmen who presided over the workshops for the day.

State Chairmen

State chairmen from Marina District are Mrs. Richard Jay Collins, parliamentarian and Mrs. Leonard Comer, gerontology and health.

Luncheon followed the workshops. Mrs. Don Amato, state president, was guest speaker, reporting on General Federation board meeting. The district president's report on "What Will Be Doing," was given by Miss Helen Sahlberg, Los Cerritos; Mrs. Robert Dreizler, Marina District; Mrs. Walter Dabney, Jr., Orange; and Mrs. Don Richardson, Verdugo - Metropolitan.

Betsy Ross Club Plans Dinner, Bazaar

Final arrangements for the annual bazaar and dinner of Betsy Ross club were made at their club meeting Tuesday morning in Torrance Masonic Temple. The affair will be held Oct. 31 at the temple.

Freda Shaffer will have charge of the Tuesday meeting in the absence of club president Caroline Pennington.

Hospital Auxiliary Fills Official Vacancy

Mrs. Horace LeCuyer, Manhattan Beach, is the new president of Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Orthopedic Hospital for the balance of the 1959-60 term. Installation ceremonies were held during a recent tour of the hospital following the resignation of Mrs. Mel Margulies.

The executive board now includes: First Vice-President, Mrs. Glen Kleinhesselink, second vice-president, Mrs. Walter Hetz, treasurer, Mrs. Louis Lanzer, recording secretary, Mrs. Hans Hansen, corresponding secretary, Mrs. David Levine, historian, Mrs. Frank Besoby, auditor, Mrs. Richard Egan, Standing committee heads are: Mrs. William Buchanan, hospitality, Mrs. Robert Cameron, membership, Mrs. Charles MacPherson, volunteer chairman.

Plans are being made for the annual Evergreen Ball to be held at the Palos Verdes Country Club in December and the Spring Fashion Show to be staged at Los Angeles International Airport in February.

AFS Exchange Students Talk at Woman's Club

Torrance Woman's Club, district 18, CFWC, held their second general meeting of the season Oct. 21 with a pot luck luncheon served at 12:30. Mrs. John Thuss, president, opened the business meeting at 1:30 and presented year books to those new members unable to be present for the first meeting. Mrs. Alta Gans, membership chairman, greeted the new members and introduced them to the membership.

The afternoon's program was presented by three Torrance high school pupils, Mary Smiley of Torrance High, Michael Robbins of South High, and Gerald Duncan of North High. Each gave their impressions of the countries they had visited last summer under the American Field Service summer exchange program.

Mary had lived for six weeks in Austria, Michael in Finland, and Gerald, in Germany.

Fuchsia Society Honors Mrs. Clark

Mrs. Phillip Clark was guest of honor at the Oct. 19 dinner meeting of the board members of the Torrance branch of the California National Fuchsia Society. Mrs. Clark had served the club for two years as president. Retiring board members presented her with a trophy cleverly designed with miniature gavel.

Among those present were president Frank Hinkel and Mrs. Hinkel, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jenkins, Mmes. Edward Hechinger, Garrison Ruby, Henry Glenn, John Donahue, Godfrey Nelson and Stephen Boyko.

A board meeting will be held Oct. 26 at the home of Mrs. Boyko, for the purpose of completing plans for the November meeting.

A potluck dinner will be held Nov. 10 at McMaster Park, the club to furnish turkey, dressing and coffee. Members are to bring their favorite covered dish and their own table service.

Frances Donoho will furnish accordion music.

Guest speaker will be Charles H. Wortham who will show slides and talk of his recent trip to Turkey and the sister-city of Torrance, Konya.

MRS. LYLE SCHERMITZLER To Introduce Chairmen

YWCA Offers Dance Course

Social dance lessons will be offered at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St. starting Nov. 2nd. Mrs. David Wise will be the instructor.

The series of eight consecutive classes will be limited to 15 couples. Instruction the first hour will be followed by individual help. To be taught are the waltz, fox trot, rumba, tango, mambo, and swing.

Those interested may register at the Y. YWCA membership is a prerequisite for the course.

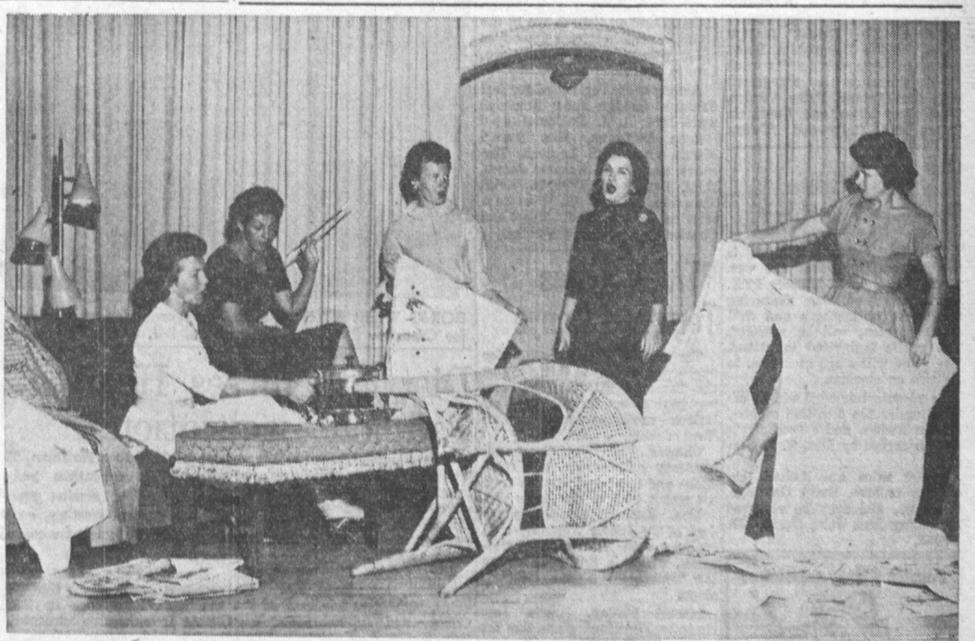

HEADING THE SLATE of officers for the Post Legion Auxiliary Post 342 are Commander William T. Hoss and President Tania Grobosky.

Women

Betty Laurent for Mary Neth, Woman's Editor

Telephone FAirfax 8-2345

"THOSE HUSBANDS OF OURS" is the title of drama section play to be presented Oct. 29 by Torrance Junior Woman's Club, at the Encragia Ave. clubhouse. Shown rehearsing a scene of wreckage, caused by "those husbands" are, from left, Mmes. William Sturgis, Allen Hofferber, Wade White, John Stokley and William Gardner.

Drama Section to Give Play

Are husbands dependable? Members of Torrance Junior Woman's Club and their husbands will find the answer as they attend the annual presentation of the drama section on "Husbands of Ours" Oct. 28 at the clubhouse.

"Those Husbands of Ours" is a satire on women and the way they react when discussing the husband problem. Members of the cast are seven women who return from lone vacations to face problems created by their "bachelor" husbands. A few surprises are planned for the audience the night of the play.

Mrs. Robert L. Kerber, drama chairman, will direct. The cast will include Mmes. Gerson Jacobson, Allen Hofferber, W. H. Gardner, William Sturgis, Robert Davis, John M. Stokley, and Wade White.

Following the play, there will be a formal recognition of the new provisional members by Mrs. W. E. Starr, 2nd vice president in charge of membership. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. J. G. Louvier and her committee, Mmes. Douglas Horlander, Russell M. Clawson, Clayton T. Lilley, Don T. McCalman and James K. Lees.

To accentuate the flavor, use honey in cooking raisins or dried figs, prunes, or pears for use on cereal.

Torrance Pilots Mark International Founding

Celebrating the founding of the international organization of Pilot clubs, members of Torrance Pilot club held a dinner meeting Oct. 28 at Smith Bros. Fish Shanty.

The first club in the international group of 400 clubs was organized in Macon, Ga. Oct. 18, 1921.

In observance of founder's day, Torrance club members attended the Methodist church in a body Oct. 18. Mrs. Oneita Swain of San Jose, governor of the California district, and Mrs. Joseph DeJaifre of Torrance, lt. governor of the district accompanied local members.

Radio Program
Dinner entertainment Thursday was a mock radio show on the founding of Pilot international. Mrs. John Whittington, coordinating committee chairman, was assisted by Mmes. Gerald Cork, Charles Moore, Herma Tillim, Mary Young, and Miss Elizabeth Holland.

To Council Meet
Attending a fall council meeting of Pilot clubs of California in Sacramento Oct. 24-25, are Miss Mae Sleep and Mmes. Joseph Burchfield, John Whittington, Joseph DeJaifre, Herman Tillim and Mildred Krueger. On the program Saturday were an afternoon tour of the capitol grounds and an evening reception. Business was conducted Sunday morning with governor Oneita Swain presiding. Workshops presenting the work of each committee was conducted by lt. governor Peg DeJaifre.

Dog Show Held Today

Owners of pet Chihuahuas are invited to enter the Puppy and Novice Chihuahua Fun Match at El Nido Park today. Dogs from two months to four years may be entered at a fee of one dollar. Entries will be taken from 10 a.m.-12:30. Judging will start at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Josie Lawson, Redondo, officiating. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded.

Potluck Dinner
A potluck dinner will be served from 11-12:30. For further information call, DA 8-5851 or OS 6-2834.

YW Women Plan Dessert Meeting

The Donald Randolph home, 912 Via Panorama, Palos Verdes, will be the scene of a YWCA dessert meeting Oct. 29 at 2 p.m. The event will feature Dr. Frances Clark, vice president of the Harbor Area YWCA, who attended a visitor's program in conjunction with the world council meeting of the YWCA, just concluded in Cuernavaca, Mexico.

Dr. Clark will cover highlights of the conference, with special emphasis on the role of YWCA in the lives of refugees around the world. The affair is sponsored by the National Support committee headed by Mrs. O. R. C. Grow and the World Fellowship Committee with Mrs. Vincent Kaliterna as chairman. An offering will be taken for world fellowship.

Y-Wives Active
Mrs. Paul Hubay, president of Palos Verdes YW-Wives and Mrs. Lee Stamps, are members of the planning committee. Mmes. J. W. Bacon, Jr., Dave Hamlin, Paul Hubay, Gene La Husen, and D. F. Stratton of the Palos Verdes YW-Wives, will assist.

Mrs. Randolph, hostess, is national resources chairman on the board of the Harbor Area YWCA. Before coming to southern California benefit at the Southern California Gas Co. in Redondo, she was a member of the national board.

Sorority to See Corsage Making

Alpha Delta Pi South Bay Alumnae Association will meet Oct. 28 at the home of Mrs. John McGovern. Mrs. Sam Wernly and Mrs. John Whitacre will be co-hostesses.

Speaker of the evening will be Mrs. Flynn Sturges of Redondo, a member of South Bay Garden club. She will demonstrate the use of home grown flowers in corsage making, and present ideas for holiday favors.

Sorority members are asked to support the Nov. 12 dessert-benefit at the Southern California Gas Co. in Redondo.

Las Vecinas to Honor Presidents

Past presidents of Las Vecinas Woman's club will be honored guests of the club at their 11th anniversary to be celebrated Oct. 29 in the Banberry room of the Plush Horse restaurant. Among those invited are Mmes. R. W. Blakeley, Claude Feffel, Frank Manover, Max Webber, David Hurford, L. M. Nash, Robert Pinkney, Robert A. Matson, Henry Schmidt and Thomas O'Malley.

On the program will be a panel of Torrance summer exchange students under the American Field Service program.

Las Vecinas, meaning "The Neighbors," was organized Oct. 28, 1948 by women residents of Hollywood Riviera and Seaside Ranchos. The club has established a record in combining events of a social and cultural nature with philanthropic endeavors during the past ten years.

This month's tea chairman is Mrs. Mel Nefflinger. She is to be assisted by Mmes. Eugene Byrd, Bruce Mapes and Lester Oswald.

Ladies of Elks Set Fashion Show Date

"Fashions-a-Plenty" will be the theme of the annual luncheon fashion show of Torrance Ladies of the Elks, to be presented at 1 p.m., Nov. 7 at the Redondo Elks lodge, 315 Esplanade, Redondo Beach.

Models from the Kay Perry Fashion Styles will show the latest in styles and colors, while the Mad Hatters will furnish hats to compliment.

Mrs. Don George and Mrs. Bob LeBlend are general chairmen. Others are Mrs. L. Lefers and Mrs. T. Foster and Mrs. M. Hartel, programs; Mrs. C. Lyons, tickets. Mrs. M. Pike and Mrs. C. Marquand will be hostess.

Door prizes will be awarded. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. C. Lyons, DA 9-3358 or from any member of the Ladies of the Elks.

Mothers Club to Sponsor Toy Party
Mrs. Frank Doran, publicity chairman of McMaster Park Mothers Club, has announced a toy party to be held at the park at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 27. A line of Christmas toys for all ages will be shown during a coffee hour to be sponsored by the club. Mrs. Donald Englert is president.

PROFESSIONAL MODEL Barbara Schooley of Kay Perry Fashion Arts (right) shows Mrs. Pat Huffine (left) and Mrs. C. Lyons the art of modeling. All will appear in annual fashion show of Torrance Ladies of the Elks, Nov. 7, at the Redondo Elks Club.